

As long as I pay the phone bill at my residence, I should be the only person with the right to decide who uses it. I give my phone number to people I chose to hear from ... not the multitude of businesses that they have undisclosed relationships with. And when I terminate a business relationship IT'S OVER. I think the law should be expanded ... I DON'T WANT THE RELIGIOUS OR POLITICAL CALLS EITHER. They don't pay my phone bill, and they should not have a right to bother me in my home either. Wisconsin residents have indicated how they feel about the phone harrassment at home ... please do not overrule it. If people in other states don't mind being disturbed, then that's their choice. we Don't want it.
